Chill Pill

Trendy, cosy and perfectly located in downtown Denver, this stylish apartment has it all – whether you're in town for a few days or a few weeks. We love the bold colours, stylish furniture and plush accents, from the fluffy towels to the memory foam mattress on the sumptuous king-sized bed. But most of all, we love the location. LoDo is the oldest neighbourhood in the city, home to attractions like Coors Field and Millennium Bridge as well as popular bars, restaurants and galleries. The building has plenty of amenities to enjoy too – break a sweat in the gym, head up to the roof terrace and take in the views or, in the summer, cool off in the pool. Craving a night in? Whip up something delicious in the modern kitchen – decked out with stainless steel appliances and all the culinary gear you need – before binging your favourite shows on the smart TV. With Union Station a seven minute stroll away, you couldn't ask for a better base to explore Denver.
