Fancy trying out the lifestyle of a Chicagoan for a bit? Look no further than this cool River North apartment, which will make you feel right at home in one of the city's most desirable districts. Start your day by firing up the coffee machine and enjoying an americano at the breakfast bar as you plan your day. If you have some work to do, you'll find a desk ready for you to set up your laptop, but if your day is free then perhaps you'll want to explore some of the nearby attractions, many of which you can walk to. The River North district has the highest concentration of galleries in the US, after Manhattan, and it's also close to a lot of the sights that any visitor to Chicago will want to tick off, like Cloud Gate. Back at home there's a Whole Foods downstairs where you can pick up ingredients for cooking in the fully-equipped kitchen - but make sure you try out some of the local restaurants too.
